

Rule 10
Questions

1. The Terms of the Competition specify that caddies are allowed. In which of the following situations will a player get the general penalty for play of a wrong ball?
 - A. A player plays his or her original ball from a spot in the general area where a spectator had thrown it from out of bounds. The player's caddie observed the action of the spectator but said nothing before the stroke.
 - B. A player makes a stroke at another player's ball in play moving in temporary water.
 - C. A player makes a stroke at another player's ball in play moving in water in a penalty area.

2. A player's club strikes the ground behind the ball, not making contact with the ball; however, the ground is struck with sufficient force to move the ball and the player's club continues, then striking the moving ball. What is the ruling?
 - A. The player must count the stroke at the ball that struck the ground and caused the ball to move. There is not a penalty for striking the ball more than once in making a stroke.
 - B. The player must not count the stroke at the ball that struck the ground and caused the ball to move; there is a one-stroke penalty for striking the ball more than once in making a stroke.
 - C. The player must not count the stroke at the ball that struck the ground and caused the ball to move; there is not a penalty for striking the ball more than once in making a stroke; the ball must be replaced.

3. In a match between A and B, a caddie is carrying both players' bags. Before his or her stroke, A asks the caddie what club B just used from about the same location. What is the ruling?
 - A. There is no penalty.
 - B. There is a one-stroke penalty.
 - C. A gets the general penalty.

4. In stroke play, a player starts his or her round with two caddies. Between the play of the 3rd and 4th holes, the player learns that he or she is in violation of the Rules and immediately stops using the second caddie. What is the ruling?
 - A. The player gets the general penalty at each of the first and second holes.
 - B. The player gets the general penalty at each of the first three holes.
 - C. The player gets the general penalty at each of the first four holes.

5. In stroke play, while waiting to play their tee shots at the 10th hole, A mentions to B (a fellow competitor) that he (B) has been over-swinging all day. What is the ruling?
- A. No penalty to either player.
 - B. A gets a two-stroke penalty, applied to the 10th hole.
