

NOTICE OF UPDATE:

The following updates to the Bylaws of the Utah Country Club Ladies' Golf Team Association were agreed upon by a unanimous vote of 8 to 0, on March 2, 2023 by the required quorum of all Clubs. Full By-laws follow this page.

Changes to previously posted 2022 Bylaws:

Article VIII, Section 1 change from paying 2 places to pay 3 places.

Article VIII

Section 1: Monetary awards for first, second, and third place for A, B and C Teams shall be awarded at the conclusion of team matches for the year. A traveling trophy will also be awarded to the first place A, B and C Teams.

Addition of Article V, Section 5 – Disciplinary Action

Article V

Section 5: If disciplinary action is necessary due to a Team Member's behavior or standing with the Utah Country Club Ladies Golf Team Association, the "Committee" (Composed of the Captain of Captains, Past year's Captain of Captains and two additional Captains representing the clubs involved) will meet and agree upon action(s) to be taken.

For minor or first-time offenses, counseling the Team Member and recording the event with a letter may be considered. Example: Cell phone violations

More serious or repeat infractions may result in suspension or removal from Team play for the year. Example: Intentional Cheating, Bullying or offensive behavior directed at opponent.

If a player is suspended due to an infraction, she has the right to petition the executive committee for eligibility in the following season.

 - 3b. The lowest 16 handicap index players are eligible to play. The lowest 8 shall be the A Team and the second 8 shall be the B Team;
 - 3c. In A and B Team competition, the maximum spread between the opponents course handicaps shall not be more than 14 strokes, regardless of the opponents actual handicap differences;
 - 3d. In C Team competition, the maximum spread between the opponents course handicaps shall not be more than 18 strokes, regardless of the opponents actual handicap differences;

3e. When A team has a bye at their home course, the 8 lowest handicap players eligible for play will not be eligible for B team competition.

Section 4: Default and substitution of players procedures are set forth in the Default and Substitution Procedures Policy, attached and incorporated into these Bylaws as Exhibit "A", and as amended.

Section 5: If disciplinary action is necessary due to a Team Member's behavior or standing with the Utah Country Club Ladies Golf Team Association, the "Committee" (Composed of the Captain of Captains, Past year's Captain of Captains and two additional Captains representing the clubs involved) will meet and agree upon action(s) to be taken.

For minor or first-time offenses, counseling the Team Member and recording the event with a letter may be considered. Example: Cell phone violations

More serious or repeat infractions may result in suspension or removal from Team play for the year. Example: Intentional Cheating, Bullying or offensive behavior directed at opponent.

If a player is suspended due to an infraction, she has the right to petition the executive committee for eligibility in the following season.

Article VI

Schedule and Play

Section 1: Each Club shall be host to a minimum of one team match for A, B and C Team matches, unless a Club does not have a C Team-

Section 2: Each A, B and C Team shall be scheduled to play one match against the other A, B and C Teams each year.

Section 3: The host team will have a bye in the event there are an uneven number of member teams.

Section 4: Team players are required to pay for a golf cart. A player is not allowed to carry her clubs, use a pull or electric cart or have a caddy.

- Section 5: A and B Team matches shall be 18 holes of golf scheduled for 9am shotgun starts on Thursdays, or as excepted by the Executive Committee. C Team may select alternate play days.
- Section 6: Team play shall be governed by USGA, UGA and the host Club local rules.
- Section 7: The golf professional of the host Club and the Captain of Captains shall resolve any questions pertaining to the rules encountered during play and award points if any resulting from their decision on the day of play.
- Section 8: Weather delays or cancellation of play will be determined by the golf professional of the host Club in conference with the Captain of Captains. A maximum weather delay of 45 minutes is suggested. In the event play is cancelled, each team in a match that has concluded a minimum of 13 holes may submit scores for the holes played and equitable scores for the remaining unplayed holes. Holes played will use the points earned, and halved points or push will be awarded for the unplayed holes.
- Section 9: All team players are required to pay for the food charges.

Article VII

Fiscal Policies

- Section 1: The Executive Committee shall determine the amount of yearly team dues.
- Section 2: Each Club shall pay yearly A, B and C Team dues.
- Section 3: All monies accrued by UCCLGTA from dues or other revenue shall be used during the current year, leaving no balance in the treasury.
- Section 4: The Captain of Captains will be reimbursed for expenses incurred in the line of performing her duties of the UCCLGTA.
- Section 5: UCCLGTA dues will serve as the revenue source for monetary awards, team trophies and hole-in-one trophies.
- Section 6: The amount of the monetary awards shall be approved by the Executive Committee.

Article VIII

Awards and Trophies

Section 1: Monetary awards for first, second, and third place for A, B and C Teams shall be awarded at the conclusion of team matches for the year. A traveling trophy will also be awarded to the first place A, B and C Teams.

Section 2: Hole-in-One Trophy:

- 2a. A player recording a hole-in-one during a team match shall be rewarded with an engraved trophy with name, date and place.
- 2b. The trophy shall be presented at the final team match.
- 2c. A player recording a hole-in-one shall not be responsible for champagne, drinks or other refreshments, other than her food charges under Article VI, Section 9.

Article IX

Quorum and Voting

Each Club has one vote, regardless of the number of teams the Club may sponsor for play. At any meeting of the Executive Committee, two-thirds of the Clubs must be represented to constitute a quorum sufficient for any vote, and a majority vote of the quorum is sufficient for decision making, except for the amendment of these Bylaws. Each Club may submit its vote by email or other written form, to the Captain of Captains, prior to any Executive Committee meeting in which a vote is to be taken, and may be counted to constitute a quorum.

Article X

Amendments

These Bylaws may only be amended by a two-thirds vote of all the Clubs. The amendment(s) shall have been presented in writing to the Executive Committee thirty (30) days before being presented for a vote.

Article XI

Parliamentary Authority

"Robert's Rules of Order" as revised, shall be the parliamentary authority for all matters of procedure not specifically covered by these Bylaws or policy and procedure adopted by the UCCLGTA.

Article XII

Substitution of Bylaws

These Bylaws shall replace any and all previous bylaws, amendments, policy and procedures of the UCCLGTA.

Agreed upon by a unanimous vote of 8 to 0, on March 2, 2023 by the required quorum of all Clubs.

EXHIBIT A

DEFAULT AND SUBSTITUTION PROCEDURE POLICY

COMPLETE DEFAULT:

- A. If prior to play, a player defaults, team players will advance to vacate the number 8 position. The scoring will be as follows:

The number seven players will play match play. The number 8 player on the non-defaulting team will play stroke play, playing out every hole. She will receive 9 points from the default position. She can earn additional points for each hole in which her net score is below par up to a maximum of 9 points. She is allowed a maximum of a 36 handicap for the default match only.

- B. For B and C Teams only, if, in good faith, no players from the respective Club are available to fill in to avoid a default, then the defaulting team may ask for one substitute player from first the host Club, then any other Club, to fill out the team in order to avoid a default. If a substitute player cannot be found, or if more than one player is needed, the unfilled position will be subject to the default procedures above. No Club is required to provide a substitute player. Any player that has played as a substitute player retains the right to play for her own Club.

PARTIAL DEFAULT:

(Late for Play or Unable to Finish)

Defaulting player will forfeit $\frac{1}{2}$ point for each un-played hole. Non-defaulting player will automatically earn $\frac{1}{2}$ point for each hole of default. The remaining two players will play match play. Example: The number 5 player gets ill and does not play the final three holes. She loses $1 \frac{1}{2}$ points, her opponent wins $1 \frac{1}{2}$ points, and the players in the 6 position play match play for the final 3 holes.
